

Cheryl Smith is an encourager of the Body, drawing on her own experiences relating to God as Provider, Healer, Husband and Faithful One. Cheryl easily builds rapport with others and sometimes finds that as a result, God penetrates the hearts of those who hear her speak or sing.

Today Cheryl is pursuing God's call as a self-employed consultant, speaker and writer. In June of 2006 she married her best friend Peter. Together they reside in Lynchburg, VA with their four children, golden retriever puppy Archie, Bailey the cat and Jessica the gerbil. Cheryl is active in her local church, serving on one of the praise teams and in a variety of other capacities.
